THE EDITOR'S PARADISE.

"I would love from the city's rule and law—from its fashions and forms out-look—and go where the strawberry grows on its 'stems' and the gooseberry grows on its goose; where the catnip tree is climbed by the cat as she eludes for her prey the gulleots and unsuspicious rat on the ratban bush at play; I will catch with ease the saffron ome and covelet in their glaze, as they leap in joy from bough to bough on the top of a covelet tree; and list while the partridge drums his drum and the woodchuck chucks his wood, and the dog devours the dogwood in its primitive solitude. "O let me drink from the mossy green pool, that was born from the pumpkin tree! Eat mush and milk from a rural stump, from folly and fashions free—new gathered mush from the mushroom vine, and milk from the milkweed root—with pineapple from the pine. And then to the whitewashed dairy I'll turn, where the daisy milk is dripping from the udder of her butterflies; and I'll rise at morn with the earliest bird, to the fragrant farmyard pass and watch while the farmer turns his herd of grasshoppers out to grass."

The illustrations and designs to appear in the Twelve-page Thanksgiving Number of THE LEDGER are not stock cuts or rehearsed ideas, but strictly up-to-date and protected by copyright. The late War is not forgotten, and the soldier boy is "in it." Or, he may be the husband of the beautiful figure. Some may think she is too good looking and the pose too enchanting for her to be his wife, but that is a question which we will let the reader decide. All in all, the colored design gives ideas for much thought and discussion.

WILL THE PEOPLE SUBMIT?

Following are the net results of the infamous Goebel Election Commission: Democrats absolutely control the election system in every county in Kentucky. In 16 counties there are two Democratic and one Republican Election Commissioners; in 13 counties there are two Democratic and one Populist Commissioner; and in the 11 remaining counties we have solidly Democratic Boards.

Republicans are in a helpless minority of one against two in 16 counties and in 24 counties they are absolutely without representation on the Boards that are masters of the election machinery, pass upon all election contests and from whose most infamous decisions there is no appeal.

The Republican organizations were not permitted to select the few Republicans appointed, and it is a notorious fact that the so-called Populists are nearly all Democrats in disguise, having voted and acted with the Democratic party on every important occasion in recent years.

The mask of hypocrisy that was put on when Judge Payson was elected a member of the State Election Commission has been thrown off, and the Goebel conspiracy is revealed in all its hideousness.

Has the Republican party been such an enemy to the state and Nation as to justify these outrageous acts of law and decency to drive or keep it from power?

In the supremacy of WILLIAM GOEBEL and his hizz-band followers so important to the welfare of Kentucky as to condone this unspeakable rape of the ballot?

Will the people submit?

It is important for candidates at every election to look closely after the law, but hereafter they must keep a weather eye on the Honolulus.

A bird's paw was found in a piece of sausage purchased by a family from a butcher at Richmond. Had the Indiana Board of Health investigated—No! Yes!

Any ordinary epileptic would be satisfied with the paw, without calling in the Board of Health to hunt for the paw of the cat. But it's hard to tell what some people want in a bowl of soup.

For the first time in the history of the county the voters of Miami will next Tuesday have the opportunity to secure themselves and posterity the right to travel over all the public highways of the county free of toll. At its last spring term the Fiscal Court arranged with the owners of the principal pikes that the gates be removed, with the understanding that the pikes should be bought at the price agreed upon between the Court and the owners. The Court, as the agent of the people, has recommended the purchase, and all that now remains is for the people to vote for Free Turnpikes and for the Bond Issue, and all will be well. It is the many thing to do. It is the honest thing to do. And therefore it is the right thing to do. Vote for the Bond Issue, and let us have free travel and peace throughout the whole county.

It has been said quite recently by the Hon. WILLIAM GOEBEL, in defense of the "Goebel Election Law," that the Ohio Legislature had passed a law much more stringently favoring the dominating party than his law; but an examination and comparison of the two laws fails to bear out the statement of the author of Kentucky's creation measure.

The Goebel Law creates three State Commissioners, who are of one political faith. They are self-perpetuating; if any should die or resign, the others can supply his place. The three Commissioners appoint three County Commissioners, who may be of any one party. The County Commissioners may be relieved at any moment by the State Commissioners without notice or assignment of reasons therefor. The County and State Commissioners are not to be prosecuted or in any way held responsible for their acts.

The Ohio Law creates no State Commissioners. The Secretary of State, elected by the people, is compelled to appoint such Commissioners as are nominated by the party Committees of the county, two and two. For instance, the County Democratic Committee names two men. The Republican Committee names two men. The Secretary of State must appoint those four men for Clerk, Republican and Democrat, and lets each to see which will be chosen.

If the Democrat gets it, one of the Republican Commissioners is made Judge or Chairman of the Commission. Or, if the Clerk is a Republican, then a Democrat is made Judge. Thus the County Commission is composed, and it cannot be changed by any one person or party. The Ohio Commissioners are liable to indictment and a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000; or imprisonment; or both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the Court.

There never were two laws more dissimilar in purpose and design.

The Kentucky Law is drawn for the purpose of depriving all parties but one of any supervisory power over the conduct of the election, and that without any redress in the way of appeal to the Courts for justice.

The Ohio Law compels everything to be done under the supervision of each party, punishes wrong doing and gives jurisdiction for revision by the judiciary.

The one provides for dishonesty in elections—the other punishes it.

Blood Cleaning. House-cleaning is a duty in every well-regulated household. People don't wait until the dirt becomes painfully apparent, but it stands for reason that day-by-day the dirt accumulates. It is so with the human blood. From the enormous variety of wastes taken into the body, a certain amount of useless material is bound to accumulate in the blood and clog the free and wholesome flow in the vessels. Every person, therefore, from time to time has a "blood cleaning," and the best cleanser and blood purifier is Cascarella's Candy Cathartic. We recommend them to all our readers.

"History of the Spanish-American War," by Henry Watterson. The above is the title of a superbly illustrated, richly bound volume issued by the Werner Company, Akron, Ohio. It is the only authentic history of the Spanish-American War that has so far come to our notice. All the others have, in the main, been merely revamped histories of the Cuban War, with some illustrations and a few chapters about the Spanish-American War. Of course, anything written by Henry Watterson would be readable. He, above all others, is the authority. Every line of the book breathes an enthusiastic spirit of patriotism that is exhilarating and inspiring.

The work contains over 600 pages, a large number of full-page half-tones, together with many smaller illustrations, in color and in black and white. It is sold by subscription, and will undoubtedly prove a money-maker to every intelligent salesman.

THE COST OF WAR.

Spain Must Pay to the United States Every Dollar Expended on Account of the Struggle.

EITHER IN POSSESSIONS OR CASIL

As Spain Has No Money We Will Take and Occupy the Whole of the Philippines.

If After Balancing Our Accounts it is Found Any Compensation is Due the U. S. It Will Be Paid to Them in a Lump Sum.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The cabinet Tuesday devoted most of its attention to consideration of questions connected with the administration of affairs in Cuba and Porto Rico. The administrative features of the Philippine question also received some attention. Nothing has been heard from the commission at Paris as to Monday's proceedings and it is realized that nothing is to be expected in the way of developments until Friday's session.

While the cabinet gave little attention Tuesday to the peace negotiations at Paris, there is no longer any doubt as to the general purposes of this government to retain the entire Philippine archipelago. If, after final balancing of the account, viz., the cost of the war to the United States on one side, and our acquisitions on the other, it is found that any compensation is due the Spaniards it will be made in a lump sum. It is pointed out that at the time the protocol was signed the United States did not have and has not since acquired any part of the Philippine islands outside of Manila city and harbor, and that the United States has never entertained a purpose to acquire any territory by the power of conquest. What the United States will insist upon is that she must be fully reimbursed for every dollar expended by her on account of the war, and in the statement will be included an amount sufficient to cover all payments, present and prospective, on account of the pensions incident to the war. No part of any character or amount, other than local or municipal bonds, will be paid or assumed by this government. The question of the status of municipal obligations under circumstances like the present is fully settled by international law. They must be recognized as valid and binding by the conquering power, and hence it is assumed that the United States will not raise any question on this point, but promptly consent to guarantee their final payment. What sum of money this government will consent to pay to Spain can not yet be determined, but when the final account is rendered, it is believed that the balance due Spain will be small, probably not exceeding $5,000,000.

The belief still prevails among the majority of the cabinet that the Spaniards will accept the terms laid down by the United States and whatever delay occurs before that result is reached will be chargeable only to the purpose of the Spaniards to secure the best possible terms; to extort the last possible million dollars, before acceding to our demands.

The possibility of disagreement of the commissioners and the failure of the conference, however, is now contemplated with greater equanimity than at an earlier stage of the negotiations. The administration has satisfied itself that Spain is neither able nor willing to resume hostilities on any scale that would make her a dangerous opponent to the United States. The Spaniards, supposing the Paris conference to fail, all that would be imposed upon our government as an immediate duty would be to take immediate complete military possession of the Philippines. This is believed could be accomplished without loss of life. The last vestige of Spanish military power in the islands is left under Col. Rios, commander-in-chief of the troops on the islands, and by deputized authority, in charge of all Spanish territory not directly within the control of the United States, in the Philippine islands. His force is insignificant from a military point of view, and it is doubtful if he could have held his own against the insurgents had the Tagals been allowed by Admiral Dewey to remain in Manila the base of an expedition directed against the Spanish commander.

So far as Cuba is concerned, the difficulty might be more serious but even in Cuba the Spanish military forces are not in condition to offer a prolonged resistance to the American conquest of the island and with the Spanish navy at the bottom of the sea they could not be reinforced with troops from Spain. Therefore, about the worst that could happen would be the necessity imposed upon us of struggling along without the signature of a treaty of peace, but in full possession of all the territory we desire, and that such conditions can exist without damage to material interests is shown by the history of the Spanish republics which revolted from Spain's rule.

No decision has yet been reached by the commissioners regarding the date of evacuation of Cuba.

LEAVE FASHODA.

Maj. Marchand's Expedition Will Receive Orders to March Back Across the Frontier.

INSTRUCTIONS ARE NOW ON THE WAY.

France Agrees to Evacuate All the Military Posts Established East of the Frontier.

Egyptian Government Will Be Invited to Send Troops to Goshim Maj. Marchand as He Retires—France Disposed to Smooth Matters Over.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Daily Graphic says Tuesday morning an official source in Paris that Capt. Barthelemy Marchand is to return to Fashoda and there to withdraw his expedition in the direction of the Upper Ubangi river, north of the Congo, evacuating Fashoda and the five posts established by him east of the frontier indicated in the Anglo-German agreement.

"The Egyptian government will be invited to send troops to accompany Maj. Marchand as he retires from the Bah-Eldhazal territory, and to reoccupy the posts as they are evacuated by the French officer, thus solving the difficulty concerning Maj. Marchand's retirement."

"When Maj. Marchand's retirement is fully accomplished negotiations based on proposals submitted by Baron de Courcel to Great Britain will be opened. France is disposed to recognize frankly that the reconquest of Omdurman completely changes the situation as it existed when Maj. Marchand was instructed to proceed to the Nile. The French government will even state that, had Maj. Marchand been aware of the Khedive's attitude, he would have pushed his mission no far east."

"These intentions have not yet been officially imparted to Great Britain, but they probably will be before Maj. Marchand's evacuation commences."

WITH GREAT POM

Consecration Ceremony at the Church of the Redeemer in Jerusalem, Palestine.

EMPEROR WILLIAM IN WHITE UNIFORM.

The Route Lined With Turkish Troops as Their Majesties Drive to the Tower of Babel.

The Services in the Church Were Very Impressive—The Building is of Limestone, Surmounted by a Square Gothic Tower Designed by the Emperor.

JERUSALEM, Nov. 2.—The consecration ceremony at the Church of the Redeemer was attended with the greatest pomp. Early Tuesday morning huge crowds began to collect to witness the imperial cortege. The route was lined with Turkish troops and German soldiers. Emperor William and the empress drove to the Tower of Babel, from which point they walked to the church, the emperor in the white uniform of the German guard and the empress in a gray costume both wearing numerous decorations. As their majesties entered the church the organ pealed forth a triumphal march, and whose strains they passed to the altar, preceded by the officiating clergy bearing the sacramental insignia.

The church was filled with uniformed officials. In the course of the service, which was very impressive, Emperor William read the constitution of the church and expressed the hope that the ministrations of the church would be followed by the Divine blessings.

Cardinal Kopp, prince bishop of Breslau, whom the emperor had informed of his acquisition of the Abode of the Redeemer, saying: "Your majesty has added a new link to the chain of recurrent proofs of your just disposition and sovereign solicitude for Catholic subjects, and at the same time you have inspired a lasting joy in the hearts of the faithful, which has given joy to the whole Catholic Christianity, and will always be held and cherished by German Catholics in grateful remembrance of an emperor's magnanimity."

The church of the Redeemer is a handsome limestone building, surmounted by a square Gothic tower, designed by Emperor William. The altar which the emperor is richly ornamented in gold and mosaic with the head of Christ.

The organ stands in the north apse and in the south apse, which is painted in a Turkish style, stands a white font, the gift of the duke of Mecklenburg.

The consecration ceremony was deeply impressive. Their majesties, who were seated in the steeple of the altar, were the central figures in a setting of crimson, blue and gold, and silver, that gleamed and flashed in the sunlight, over the broad nave and along the aisles between arched colonnades of white stone, upon crowds of men in evening dress and civil uniforms and women in white, this being the color prescribed for the occasion.

Drs. Dryander and Hoppe preached eloquently from a massive and beautiful pulpit of polished limestone, under arch oak canopy.

Emperor William has abandoned his proposed visit to Nazareth and House of Galilee owing to the heat and the great strain upon the horses.

Modores for Spain to Resume Hostilities.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Daily Chronicle says editorially Wednesday morning: "A war in which the justly vanquished nation receives a solution of $40,000,000 would be a novelty so great that it must be seen to be believed. In any case it would be madness for Spain to attempt to resume hostilities."

CENTRAL AMERICAN STATES.

Salvador, Nicaragua and Honduras Will Be Combined Hereafter Under One Common Administration.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The steamer Anapulo, which arrived from South America Tuesday, brings news of the coalition of three Central American states, Salvador, Nicaragua and Honduras, which will be conducted under a common administration to be known as the United States of Central America. The inauguration of the new regime was to be upheld in Tuesday, according to the Anapulo's passengers and a grand celebration in honor of the event was to be held at Amapala, which is to be the seat of government. Under the form of the government the administration passes into the control of a representative from each of the republics—Dr. Salvador Callegas, of Salvador; Dr. Miguel Angel Ugarte, of Honduras; and Dr. Manuel Corrojo Matus, of Nicaragua.

The three gentlemen mentioned above will continue in power until March 14 next, when they will formally elect a president of the United States of Central America. He will hold office for four years. Advice state that the three countries have practically agreed on J. Rosa Paez, of Salvador, for the executive chair.
